From the Desk of Rabbi Bruce Benson

Today Rabah! Great thanks or, for some, a great thanksgiving. In our choice of translation, we see what we seek - do we see great thanks OR the great act of giving? I dare say we DO see what we seek - Do we offer thanks that life has given to us so much? That we have been showered with untold strengths by the sheer volume of what has been placed on our plate?

Perhaps we feel joyfulness by the act of giving? By the acknowledgement that we have broken through the magical line of "do I have enough to be able to share?" and can I share willingly, feeling the gratitude of having more than enough?

If so, you have been blessed in many ways and gratitude is the appropriate payback

In one of the great paybacks of history, God saves Noah and his family and requests that Noah watch over all of God's creatures and restarts humanity. Was Noah worthy? The Torah states that "Noah was the most worthy man in his time". It never states that he was good, or the best choice of all time. Would he be designated, using the lingo of our generation, as the G.O.A.T. (Greatest Of All Time?) Surely not - but he was the best of HIS time.

So be it for us as well. As we come into this month of Thanks-giving, let us look in life's mirror and, by our actions, declare ourselves to be "thankgivers", those who try to be, minimally, the best of OUR generation, the best "ME" we can be. One step ahead on the thanks-giver meter.

This year, we will be distributing our blue thanksgiving giver bags again. Let us use this Mitzvah as an opportunity to shout loudly from the top of a mountain of blue bags, "Life may not be perfect, but I am ever so grateful for what life has handed me". Let your thanks ring out to family, community and to all that life is not supposed to be perfect, and while it surely isn't, as a thanksgiver, I will do my part to care and share, meet NEEDS with DEEDS, and, while sitting with family and community, thank God and all those around you for each and every blessing that showers you in your life.

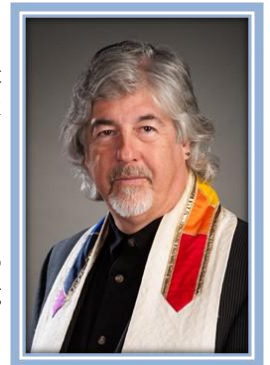

Let the answer of this community be to show our gratitude and thanks by building a mountain of help, of blessings to all around us. Let that wall of blue make its own statement for all to see, that the Jews are proudly part of this city, this state, this country and the world we live in.

Give thanks every day. Fill your bags and bring them to the lobby. Let the problem we create this Thanksgiving season be one of too many to move, too many to carry and let us do our part in abundance to say thank you for all that we have been given and all that we can share with those who say thank you as receivers of a Blessed act of thanksgiving.

Have a wonderful month of giving thanks and a most wonderful Thanks-giving holiday.

B'todah (in thanks)

Rabbi B.

The President's Communication Corner

The following is an excerpt from my Yom Kippur Appeal:

We have spent the past 10 days looking inward and asking forgiveness for the wrongs we have committed. Now it is time to start doing the right thing. So I encourage you to look deep into your hearts this evening when making your pledges. Think about what you want to help accomplish here at TBEI.

What would you like to see accomplished? Have you decided? Once you have done that, keep in mind what Johan Wolfgang Von Goethe once said: "Knowing is not enough; we must apply. Wishing is not enough; we must do." And "The way to get started is to quit talking and begin doing." (Walt Disney)

So let us begin doing. Let's work together to reach our goals. Every person's involvement is important. Let's make 5780 the year of great accomplishments here at TBEI!

Help support the Temple.....

By participating in our programs and fund-raisers

Let's greet and make visitors (and our own members) feel welcome when they come to services, in the social hall, after services or after special events.

Invite people you don't know to sit with you and get to know the people that come to our Temple. Saving seats in the Social Hall for the people we already know is not the way to meet and get to know our fellow congregants and guests.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

The month of October has been a very busy month for all of us. The High Holidays are always a hectic time of year.

Now that the holidays are past, our regular meetings will get back on track. Our next general meeting will be on Tuesday, November 12th. Our guest speaker will be Ron Frazier. He is an historian with a wealth of knowledge about Treasure Coast history. This promises to be a very interesting program.

We are very pleased to announce that we are planning a "Paid-up Membership Luncheon" for our December 10th meeting. It will be a purely social event. Please look for the reservation flyer in this issue of the Shofar. Note that Sisterhood dues must be paid-up by the November 12th general meeting in order to attend the luncheon.

"Hold the dates" The annual card party is planned for February 11th. Our annual fashion show will be April 14th. We are looking forward to these annual events. As usual, Sue Schlein is chairing both programs.

Belle Sidel and Maryann Polk, Sisterhood Co-Presidents

You can celebrate your special occasion with your friends, fellow congregants and/or relatives at an Oneg on a Friday Night at TBEI.

For a minimum of $75 you can sponsor your special event. Why not sponsor an Oneg with friends for a joint celebration?

Two weeks prior notice would be greatly appreciated.

Please call or email the Sisterhood Co-Presidents to make arrangements.

*Can you spare an hour a month to help set-up the Oneg on Friday mornings?
The Sisterhood needs volunteers . If you're available let Belle or Maryann know.*

BROTHERHOOD NEWS :

The Brotherhood general meeting on October 15, chaired by co-president Len Epstein, was well attended, and featured a presentation by Valerie Paul, the Director of the Smithsonian Marine Station in Fort Pierce, and a member of Gov. DeSantis' Blue Green Algae Task Force. She spoke with the group about the work of the station, and about how Florida is addressing the recurring problem of blue green algae.

Our next general meeting will be Tuesday, November 19, at 1 pm, and we are pleased that our special guest speaker will be Mike Lyons, Chief Meteorologist at WPBF/Channel 25. As the 2019 hurricane season winds down, Mike will offer a review of the year's storms, and discuss how our weather patterns in South Florida are affected by climate change. As usual, bagels and coffee will be available, and all are welcome to attend! The Brotherhood's November business meeting will follow Mike's presentation.

Although there will be no Brotherhood general meeting in December, we are working on two special events for the month.

The Health, Gift & Craft Fair, chaired by Bryan Yatkowitz, will be held December 15 from 2-6 pm. To buy raffle tickets, become a sponsor, or arrange a display space, contact the Temple Office at 772-336-2424, Monday-Friday from 10 am-4 pm.

And on December 25, TBEI will be the location for the traditional Jewish Chanukah/December 25 event: the Latkes and Lo Mein Meal and a Movie -- latkes and Chinese food, and a funny, classic film. Details TBA, but plan on joining us during the late afternoon/early evening!

The Brotherhood was honored to have served as ushers for the High Holidays. Shanah Tovah to all!

-Ellis Bromberg, Brotherhood Co-President

PRESENTS

Rabbi & Comedian Bob Alper

Saturday

January 11, 2020

7:00 p.m.

Tickets $25

Robert "Bob" Alper has a unique background. He is an ordained rabbi who served congregations in the northeast for 14 years and then began working full time as a comedian for the next 30 years. He still leads annual High Holy Days' services and bills himself as "the world's only practicing clergyman doing stand-up comedy—intentionally."

He has a wide following and has performed to adoring audiences all across North America—at corporate events, theatres, conventions, private events, churches, and, naturally, synagogues.

Tickets are available at the Temple office.

551 SW Bethany Drive, Port St. Lucie Tel: (772) 336-2424

Our Monthly TBEI Library Book Review.....by Sheilah Korinow

This month's book review is a continuation of last month's The Book of Jewish Why, by Alfred Kolatch, except this month we are taking a look at the second book. This concerns an altogether different group of topics, or expands the discussion about similar ones, topics such as: Who is a Jew?, Who is a Good Jew?, Judaism and Christianity, Jews in a Gentile World, Marriage, inter-marriage, and Conversion, The Personal Dimension, Death and Dying, Theology and Prayer, Laws and Customs, The Jewish Woman, and Jewish Foods and Mealtime Rituals.

The original book you read about last month had 500 questions, but, the author stresses, it also provoked many new ones. Some themes in both books are similar, but the new questions expand and provide additional commentary and information. Again, I am mentioning that it is extremely helpful to read the General Introduction before you look at the rest of the book, and also read the individual introduction at the beginning of each chapter. Now for some of the new questions discussed in the second book:

- Why do some Jews believe that the idea of a Chosen People should be discarded?
 - Why do some Jews consider Judaism more than a religious community?
 - Why do Jews never lose their Jewish identity, even if they convert to another religion?
 - Why can one who defected from Judaism and was baptized in the Christian Church return to Judaism without undergoing a Jewish conversion ceremony?
 - Why do some Jews consider themselves observant even if they fail to observe many of the Jewish laws?
 - Why was the works of Moses Maimonides banned by members of the Jewish community and by the Church?
 - Why does Judaism reject the doctrine of original sin?
 - Why do Jewish scholars believe that Jesus did not think of himself as the Messiah?
 - Why did the Christian Church censor the Talmud?
 - Why do Christians often say that Christianity is a religion that preaches love while Judaism is stern and legalistic?
 - Why does Christianity stress faith over action, while Judaism believes that action is more important?
 - Why did the Christian Church abandon ritual observance of Jewish law even though Jesus himself did not?
 - Why did the Christians change the day on the on which the Sabbath is observed from Saturday to Sunday?
 - Why is the supporting of non-Jewish charities by Jews consistent with Jewish Tradition?
 - Why was polygamy once accepted for Jewish men but not for Jewish women?
 - Why may a proselyte say Kaddish for his non-Jewish parents?
 - Why may a valve from the heart of a pig be used for human transplantation?
 - Why does Jewish law permit medical experimentation on animals for the benefit of Man?
 - Why is euthanasia forbidden under Jewish law?
 - Why is the Oral Law sometimes considered to be equal in status with the Written Law?
 - Why in Jewish tradition does custom often carry the weight of the law?
 - Why is it permitted to use electric candles in place of wax candles on the Sabbath and holidays?
 - Why is the woman given a marriage contract by her husband?
 - Why is the mother's name, rather than the father's, used when reciting a prayer for the recovery from illness?
 - Why is bee honey considered kosher?
 - Why is honey important in Jewish tradition?
 - Why is bread the most important food in Jewish tradition?
 - Why is salt important in Jewish tradition?
 - Why is it not necessary to kasher a microwave oven for Passover?
 - Why is peanut oil permitted on Passover while peanuts themselves have been prohibited?
- This list is just a sample of what you will enjoy reading in this book!

Besides reading the main Introduction in the beginning and others at the start of each chapter (topic), you will find the index extremely useful to provide, as the author writes, "easy access to all material on any given subject covered in both volumes." Perhaps some of you know a lot of information in the book, but others do not. If you've been wondering about certain things about Judaism, reading this book may help you answer your questions and sometimes find out there is more than one answer. I know you will enjoy this book - the author wrote; that volume 1 was greeted with "enthusiastic response." I hope you will feel that way about both volumes!

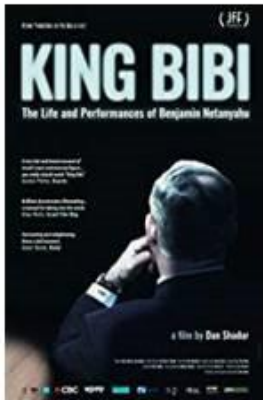

In order to check out this book from the library, you will find it standing on a shelf in the third section of books on the left side as you enter. Beside it you will find a small box with slips. Take one, fill it out and place it back in the box. When you return this book or any book you might want to check out, return it to my mailbox in the office.

TREASURE COAST JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL

2019 – 2020 Schedule

November 10, 2019
Temple Beth El Israel
Port St. Lucie

King Bibi is a documentary film about Benjamin Netanyahu's rise to power. It is assembled entirely of footage from his countless TV appearances over the years, charting his ascent to be Israel's media-savvy prime minister.

December 8, 2019
Temple Beth Shalom
Vero Beach

The Tobacconist is a tender coming-of-age story about a seventeen year old young man and his friendship with Sigmund Freud during the Nazi occupation of Vienna during WWII.

January 12, 2020
Temple Beit HaYom
Stuart

Prosecuting Evil is a gripping documentary about the life of Ben Ferencz, the last surviving Nuremberg Trials prosecutor. At the age of just 27, at his first courtroom trial, Ben was lead prosecutor at the Nuremberg Einsatzgruppen (Nazi killing squads) case.

February 9, 2020
Temple Beth El Israel
Port St. Lucie

a complicated relationship between an aging father and his special-needs son, whom he abandoned while he was still a young boy.

KING BIBI

We explore Benjamin Netanyahu's rise to power, relying solely on archival footage of his media performances over the years: from his days as a popular guest expert on American TV through his public admission of adultery, and his mastery of the art of social media. From one studio to another, Bibi evolved from Israel's great political hope, to a controversial figure whom some perceive as Israel's savior, and others as a cynical politician who will stop at nothing to retain his power.
