From the Desk of Rabbi Bruce Benson

March has come and that means that it's time for this year's Purim spiel!!

Under the amazing direction of SAUL BRONSTEIN, the TBEI players will be presenting: "Shakespeare in Adar" a Shakespearean Purim. Interspersed with Megillah readings, this interpretation uses dialogue taken from multiple plays written by the bard himself, who mysteriously told the entire story of Esther in his own words!! Don't miss this event Tuesday March 10 beginning at 6:30 pm....

Much more will be happening this month as we also get ready for Pesach!! The temple seder once again... look for details....

So much more going on around the temple - help us spread the word....

As Mordechai said: "hey! If we don't watch out for us-who will?? Come support the TBEI players!! Come support the temple! Bring your own groggers - make some noise....

Rabbi B.

The President's Communication Corner

Dr. Viktor E. Frankl was an Austrian neurologist and psychiatrist who survived three years in Auschwitz, Dachau, and other concentration camps during World War II. After the war he wrote Man's Search for Meaning, a book about his experiences as a prisoner and his psychotherapeutic method of getting through those hard times. The following is an excerpt:

"...it did not really matter what we expected from life, but rather what life expected from us.....Life ultimately means taking the responsibility to find the right answer to its problems and to fulfill the tasks which it constantly sets for each individual."

This does not apply to just the prisoners in the concentration camps or those experiencing other extreme difficulties. It applies to all of us...you...me...our temple family.

Here at Temple Beth El Israel we are always seeking answers. Some are easy to find while others are more problematic. Nobody has all the answers, so the responsibility to find them belongs to everybody. If there is something you feel is a problem or if you think there is a better way to do something, make a suggestion. One suggestion followed by someone else's and then another and another can lead us to the right answer. Problems are part of life, part of temple life. They are unavoidable. However, if we each take responsibility, we will find the right answers.

Help support the Temple.....

By participating in our programs and fund-raisers

Let's greet and make visitors (and our own members) feel welcome when they come to services, in the social hall, after services or after special events.

Invite people you don't know to sit with you and get to know the people that come to our Temple. Saving seats in the Social Hall for the people we already know is not the way to meet and get to know our fellow congregants and guests.

SISTERHOOD NEWS

Spring is finally coming, and we look forward to our events and programs.

Thank you to our chairwoman, Susan Schlein and our Sisterhood board members that made the Feb, 11th Card and Game Luncheon so successful. Everyone attending had a great afternoon.

Sisterhood General Meeting on March 10th will feature Port St. Lucie Council Member, Jolien Carabello. She will report the latest developments in Port St. Lucie and answer our questions. Have your questions ready.

Saturday night, March 14th will be a special event "Come to the Cabaret", including dinner catered by TooJays and entertainment by Suzi Cruz, "An Act To Remember", a musical act featuring songs, comedy, and music of the 40s, 50s and 60s, sponsored by Sisterhood and Brotherhood. Tickets are available at the TBEI Office for $38.

TBEI Sisterhood is planning a Women's Passover Seder on Tuesday, March 31st at 11:30 A.M. Tickets are available at the TBEI Office for $5.00. All women in the community are invited.

To sponsor a Special Oneg, please contact the Temple Office, requesting the date. Our Sisterhood President will get back to you and discuss the possible date and occasion before the date is officially set.

Sisterhood Book club will meet on March 3, at 12:00 P.M. All Sisterhood members can participate. Thanks to Hermas Grayless, you do not have to purchase the monthly book, as she has arranged to receive the books from the Port St. Lucie Library System. There will not be an April meeting due to Passover.

Save the date! Our annual "Sisterhood Fashion Show Luncheon" will be on Tuesday, April 21, 2020 at TBEI.

We hope to greet you at all our events and programs.

Belle Sidel and Maryann Polk ~ Sisterhood Co-Presidents .

You can celebrate your special occasion with your friends, fellow congregants and/or relatives at an Oneg on a Friday Night at TBEI.

For a minimum of $75 you can sponsor your special event. Why not sponsor an Oneg with friends for a joint celebration?

Two weeks prior notice would be greatly appreciated. Please call or email the Sisterhood Co-Presidents to make arrangements.

*Can you spare an hour a month to help set-up the Oneg on Friday mornings?
The Sisterhood needs volunteers . If you're available let Belle or Maryann know.*

BROTHERHOOD NEWS :

The Brotherhood had a good turnout for its February 18 General Meeting which featured a timely presentation by Gertrude Walker, St. Lucie County Supervisor of Elections, who addressed issues of voting security, one month before the March 17 Florida Presidential Primary.

The Brotherhood Board has agreed to staff Bingo the fourth Wednesday of each month. We are looking for more volunteers (and more players) for these dates. The next Brotherhood Bingo night will be March 25.

There are two Brotherhood-sponsored events in March: the Come to the Cabaret Sisterhood-Brotherhood Dinner Show starring Suzi Cruz, Saturday, March 14, 6 pm dinner and 7:30 pm show-time; and the Brotherhood's next General Meeting, featuring Harvey Safeer's annual tax tips presentation, Tuesday, March 17, 1 pm. The Brotherhood meeting is open to all, with courtesy bagels and coffee!

And tickets are now on sale for the Brotherhood's Day in Delray bus trip, April 5, to the Silverball Pinball Museum and The Delray Affair in Delray Beach. The bus will leave TBEI at 9:30 am, and return at approximately 5 pm. Tickets are $25 and include: the round-trip bus; all-day admission to the Pinball Museum, with its classic pinball machines restored for all to play, including complimentary soft drinks and coffee; and access to the Delray Affair, the largest outdoor arts and craft show in the southeastern U.S. Lunch is available: at the museum, which is offering discounted hot dogs in addition to their regular snack bar menu; on your own at one of Delray Beach's fine restaurants; or from the street vendors at The Delray Affair. It promises to be lots of fun! The bus space is limited, so be sure to sign up as soon as possible!

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

A chairperson is only as good as her team. Our team is made up of a group of ladies who make sure that our Sisterhood fundraisers run smoothly. As the chairperson of Sisterhood fundraising, I put together our fundraisers, but my team works very hard to make our fundraisers a success. They are always by my side asking, "what can I do?" I work with the most awesome women.

I'd like to thank Sue Klatch for always being there to for me. She makes the flyers, posters, and tickets for all of our events and to Too Jays for the wonderful lunch that they provided for us. I would like to also thank these ladies who worked so hard the day of our Card Party: Karol Levine, Doris Haendel, Ruth Seigel, Fran Tama, Eve Epstein, Hermes Grayless, Ferne Barishman and Linda Chazin. A special thank you to Lenny Epstein for being our Lucky Bucks guy. Thank you to Ronni Winer, Eve and Lenny Epstein, Rene Safeer, Doris Haendel, Vic Thomas and our late Rich Schnabolk for donating some of our gifts. Our card party was very successful. I am looking forward to another year of Sisterhood fundraising, but first we have to get through this year and all the fun plans we have made, such as the Sisterhood/Brotherhood Dinner Show on March 14th, our first Women's Seder on March 31st and then our Fashion Show/Luncheon on April 21st.

Our Monthly TBEI Library Book Review.....by Sheilah Korinow

I realize that by reviewing Remember, a book of poems by Walter Artzt, I may be writing about a topic which some individuals might not be interested. But then we all have different tastes - some enjoy novels, or art books, or stories and more. But to let all of you know what our temple library might contain, it is a necessary thing to do. I will tell you, however, for a person who now rarely reads poetry, I found some of Artzt's poems to be emotional, and of the quality that many of you might enjoy.

The author came to the U.S. from Russia, but only after his father, a cantor, came before him and then died before Walter could actually step foot in the U.S.. His brother brought him to Philadelphia, where he became a taxi-driver and an elevator operator. However, he worked hard to become an inventor and industrialist, and through his 70 inventions (from textile machines to Baby Gro fabrics), he still found time to "nourish his spirit" by writing poems in Yiddish. He founded the Kappast Co. in the U.S. (a part of Gerber Food Products), and the Rekem Knitting Mills in Tel Aviv. The Betty and Walter Artzt High School in Jaffa was established in his honor. The poems in this book cover so many subjects that were important to him: The Holocaust, Israel, America, The Family, and the Family of Man. These poems are written in Yiddish with English versions. In the Introduction written by Bernard Mandelbaum, it states that "Many a phrase, a line, a usage is rooted in history and humanity, reflects wisdom and delights the sense for wit and touches upon comedy as well as tragedy." An Israeli artist, Ruvin Rubin, said about the author: "Each time we meet he surprises me with something new in his pocket ... a new patent, a new cause to fight for, a new angle for an old subject.... He is tireless; he is like a child with his manner, yet wise like Solomon in his judgements."

As you read a few of these poems, remember, the original Yiddish poem is written on the right-hand page, and the English translation appears on the page to its left.

ISRAEL

*I come to greet Israel, my inspiration, my land.
Your Sunrise is the wonder of my people-long planned.
I longed and dreamed of your existence with a passionate fire-
That was, and remains, my greatest desire.
My small land, to me you are big and you're strong;
Of praise, wonder, and glory I sing you my song,
But when one of your sons is lost in a war
For the mothers, widows and children, my heart bleeds from its core.
I have always been a devoted Jew,
But my roots are in America-what can I do?
I lost my way here-this became my place.
But my devotion blossoms for the land of my race.
America is my home for nearly 80 years,
I've lived here in freedom, through joys and through tears.
To move now to the land your sweat did create,
In all honesty, for me it's a little too late.
Permit me to come and for a while breathe your air,
Forgive me the pleasure without sweating my share,
In the achievements of Israel, our flourishing nation,
I search to satisfy dreams and find my salvation*

BE WELL MY CHILD

*I never thought the day would come,
My child, when you would leave our home.
I am not alone when I grieve.
Your mother is weeping because you leave.

She does not speak, she will not show,
How it hurts before you go.
She watches you pack, and her heart is sore,
And her tears are flowing more and more.

Our big house has become very small.
Without you it is no house at all.
You are not here to answer when I call.
My voice chokes and my tears fall.

Be well, my child, be well we pray.
We shall always long for you, every day.
And if your road becomes hard and sore,
Always there is open for you our door.*

The ideas put forth in the book's inside cover state something meaningful: "Walter Artzt, a man of great passion, has had many love affairs: with his beloved wife Betty (Bloom), with the Jewish people, with the land of Israel, Yiddish, his fellow man. These threads run through the pattern of his poems. In a memorable way, he combines the interests of a dedicated, provincial Jew and a loving universal man." It was the great Israeli artist, Ruvin Rubin, who wrote: "Who was this man? Is he a writer, poet, singer, businessman, storyteller, humorist, Zionist, Yiddishist? Who knows? For he is all this and more...for to fathom his depths there is no end...." Perhaps you will feel this way too as you read his poems.

...To check out this book, go to the third bookcase, third shelf on the left as you enter the library. There you will find the book as well as a small wooden box. Remove a slip from the box, fill it out and return it to the box. When you return the book, leave it on the same shelf on which you found it...

YOM HASHOAH

April 24, 2020

Light a yellow candle
to remember those who perished.

NEVER AGAIN! "To forget would not only be dangerous but offensive, to forget the dead would be akin to killing them a second time....Not only are we responsible for the memories of the dead, we are responsible for what we are doing with these memories. For the dead and the living we must bear witness."

Holocaust Survivor Elie Wiesel

Seventy-five years have passed since the Nazi concentration camps were liberated and the Holocaust that claimed the six million Jewish lives came to an end. To ensure that the six million did not die in vain and that the Holocaust never happens again, Temple Beth El Israel once again will join Jews throughout the United States and around the world by participating in the Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle Holocaust Commemoration to keep alive the memories of the Six Million who perished.

The Yom HaShoah Yellow Candle is modeled after a traditional Jewish Yahrzeit memorial candle that burns for 24 hours during periods of mourning. The candle reminds us of the yellow arm bands that Jews were forced to wear during the Nazi regime.

As the years pass, the memories of those who were victims in this ultimate hate crime must not diminish. We encourage your family to light a yellow candle on the night of Friday, April 24, 2020, and join as thousands of Jewish families light their Yom HaShoah candles. This action will continue to increase the awareness of the Holocaust and help perpetuate our commitment to our people – particularly, since recently, with the marked increase of anti-Semitism.

The memory is important! The number of Holocaust survivors is rapidly diminishing with each passing day. As we lose this precious link, those who deny that the Holocaust happened gain strength. Sadly, a study conducted last year reported that 22 percent of millennials (23 to 38 years old) say they haven't even heard of the Holocaust.

Temple Beth El Israel Brotherhood will mail a Yom HaShoah yellow candle to each Temple family. Please join us in lighting this candle in memory of our six million brothers and sisters who perished. In addition, we encourage you to attend our Holocaust Memorial Yizkor Service led by Rabbi Benson on Friday, April 24th, 2020, at 7:30 p.m. Please mark your calendar and save the date.

Thank you for your participation,

Passover Apple Walnut cake

5 medium Apples
3/4 tsp ground Ginger
1/3 cup Raisins
3 large Eggs
3/4 tsp Cinnamon
3/4 tsp Mace
3/4 cup Matzo cake meal
3/4 tsp Nutmeg
1 1/2 cups Sugar
Nonstick Cooking spray
1/3 cup Vegetable oil
1/2 cup walnuts (or pecans)

Directions

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Lightly spray an 8-inch-square glass baking dish with cooking spray; set aside.

Mix together walnuts, 3/4 cup sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg, mace, and ginger in a medium bowl; set aside.

Beat eggs on medium speed until well combined. Beat in remaining 3/4 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, until mixture is thick and foamy, slowly pour in oil. Stir in matzo cake meal. Scrape down the sides of the bowl as necessary.

Pour half of the batter into prepared cake pan. Add half of the walnut mixture, half of the apples, and raisins. Add remaining batter and top with remaining apples; top with remaining walnut mixture.

Bake until the sides of the cake pull away from the baking dish very slightly and topping begins to caramelize, about 1 hour and 15 minutes. Let stand for several hours until completely cool, before cutting. Cover tightly with plastic wrap, can be made 2 days in advance, as the flavor improves with age.
