Jewish authors, Jewish themes and more with authors in person and visiting via Zoom

The first book is a summer read “Countdown to Doomsday” by Chuck Waldron, followed by a discussion on July 24 at 12:00 noon.

By 2035, the world will be a dangerous place. When the four horsemen, pestilence, famine, war and death, come riding in, will JL witness the end of days or behold a hopeful future?

The author, our own Chuck Waldron, will be leading the conversation regarding this book and how he came to write it.
